Commission on Sustainable Development

(53 members; three-year term)

The General Assembly, in its resolution 67/203, welcomed the decision to establish a universal, intergovernmental high-level political forum that would replace the Commission and recommended that the Commission hold its last session, which should be short and procedural, after the closure of negotiations on the format and organizational aspects of the high-level political forum and immediately before the first high-level political forum, in order to ensure a smooth institutional transition.

The General Assembly, in the same resolution, called for the negotiation process under the Assembly to define the format and organizational aspects of the high-level political forum to start in January 2013 at the latest and to aim to conclude by May 2013 so as to provide enough time to prepare the first high-level forum to be convened at the beginning of the sixty-eighth session of the Assembly.

In the light of Assembly resolution 67/203, the Council will not be holding elections in 2013 for members of the Commission for a three-year term beginning at the organizational meeting (held in 2014) of the Commission's twenty-third session and expiring at the close of the Commission's twenty-fifth session, in 2017.

Nomination of seven members of the Committee for Programme and Coordination

Note by the Secretary-General

1. In accordance with Economic and Social Council resolution 2008 (LX) and General Assembly decision 42/450, the Council is to nominate seven members for election by the Assembly at its sixty-eighth session to fill the vacancies in the Committee for Programme and Coordination that will occur on 31 December 2013 upon the expiration of the terms of the following members: Algeria, Antigua and Barbuda, Benin, China, Eritrea, Japan and Republic of Korea. The term of office is three years, beginning on 1 January 2014.

2. The Council is reminded that the General Assembly, in section III of its resolution 3392 (XXX) on the review of the intergovernmental and expert machinery dealing with the formulation, review and approval of programmes and budgets, encouraged Member States to be represented in the Committee for Programme and Coordination at an adequate level in order to raise the expertise of the Committee.

3. The vacancies are to be filled according to the following pattern:

Three members from African States;

Three members from Asia-Pacific States;

One member from Latin American and Caribbean States.

4. The membership of the Committee in 2013 is given in the annex to the present note.

Election of eight members of the Permanent Forum on Indigenous Issues from among candidates nominated by Governments and appointment of eight members by the President of the Economic and Social Council

Note by the Secretary-General

1. Pursuant to its resolution 2000/22 and its decision 2001/316, the Economic and Social Council established the Permanent Forum on Indigenous Issues as a subsidiary organ of the Council. The Forum consists of 16 members, with all members serving in their personal capacity as independent experts on indigenous issues for a period of three years, with the possibility of re-election or reappointment for one further period. Eight members are to be nominated by Governments and elected by the Council according to a specified pattern set out in decision 2001/316, and eight members are to be appointed by the President of the Council following formal consultation with the Bureau and regional groups through their coordinators on the basis of broad consultations with indigenous organizations.

2. In 2013, at its resumed organizational session, the Economic and Social Council will be called upon to elect eight members according to the following pattern, as outlined in decision 2001/316:

(a) Two members from African States;

(b) Two members from Asia-Pacific States;

(c) Two members from Eastern European States;

(d) One member from Latin American and the Caribbean States;

(e) One member from Western European and other States.

3. The terms of office of the new members of the Permanent Forum would begin on 1 January 2014 and expire on 31 December 2016. The current membership of the Permanent Forum is listed in the annex to the present note.
